

World Affairs Council- DC Launches New Program Nationally on MHZ Worldview

FALLS CHURCH, VA – World Affairs TODAY premieres on MHZ Worldview nationally on February 6. The program airs each Sunday at 8 AM ET.

Produced by The World Affairs Council – Washington, DC, the World Affairs TODAY premiere features Nobel Laureate Dr. Joseph Stiglitz, Former World Bank Senior Vice President and Chief Economist & The Honorable Roel Campos, Former Commissioner of the Security and Exchange Commission (SEC) as they discuss "Freefall: America, Free Markets, and the Sinking of the World Economy" and examine challenges and options going forward.

The World Affairs Council – Washington, DC (WAC–DC) is a non-profit, non-partisan organization dedicated to expanding awareness among the American public and the international community of geo-political, business, and civil society issues in our inter-connected world.

Since 1980, the organization has been 'A Leading Forum for Global Education and International Affairs,' 'Where Learning Happens,' with top-level and thought-provoking presentations, debates, and discussions of global education and international affairs in the Washington metro area.

The council and the program provide a neutral forum for speeches by presidents, prime ministers, cabinet officials, economists, diplomats, scholars, academics, corporate leaders, authors, researchers, pundits, journalists, and Nobel laureates. These worldwide speakers join council members, VIP guests, online audiences and the public for in-depth discussions of major foreign policy and education issues that have global impact.

Frederick Thomas, MHZ Networks Chief Executive says, "This unique partnership can only help to raise the bar of intelligent discussion of international affairs on television."
