A WORLD REFUGEE DAY 2006 EVENT

CRISIS IN DARFUR: WHAT COMES NEXT?

FOREIGN POLICY PANEL DISCUSSION - TUESDAY, JUNE 20, 2006

Recent developments have shattered hopes that the May peace deal between Khartoum and Darfur's largest rebel faction would lead to an end of violence in the war-torn region. The failure of key rebel leaders to join the agreement has stalled the process and conditions continue to deteriorate on the ground. To mark World Refugee Day, please join our distinguished panel to consider the next steps in addressing one of the world's worst humanitarian crises.
