

Announces

The “BRICs” and US 20th Annual Summer Institute on International Affairs For High School Educators

June 21-25, 2010
Washington, DC

The topics will include:

- Role and Influences of the “BRICs” on global issues
- Economic relations between “BRICs” and the United States
- Global perspectives
- Classroom resources

And more...

Highlights include:

- Presentations on internationally recognized experts
- Interactive Seminars
- On-site sessions at World Bank, foreign embassies, and others
- Free resource materials for the classroom

Registration fee $350

Limited Space Available

WAC-DC arranges accommodations if needed

$100 – double occupancy (total for 5 nights)

$200 – single occupancy (total for 5 nights)

Participants can choose to earn 3 graduate credits through the Catholic University of America.

For more information please contact Amanda Stamp via e-mail at astamp@worldaffairsdc.org

World Affairs Council - Washington, DC

1200 18th Street, NW • Suite 902

Washington, DC 20036

Ph: 202-293-1051 • Fax 202-293-3467

REGISTRATION

The BRIC and US

20th Annual Summer Institute on International Affairs for High School Educators

Summer Institute on International Affairs (participation fee = $300 until May 1, $325 after May 1)
June 22~June 26, 2009

Name _____

School _____

Please indicate where you would like to have preparatory materials sent:

Address _____

City _____ State _____ Zip _____

Is this your SCHOOL or HOME address

Phone (school) _____ (home) _____

Fax (school) _____ (home) _____

School E-mail: _____ Personal E-mail: _____

What subjects do you teach?

Grade level?

I would like to reserve a dorm room at George Washington University: YES NO

Check-in is on Sunday, June 20, 2010 and check-out is on Friday, June 25, 2010

Security Info for State Department Visit:

SSN or Driver's License Number: _____

Date of Birth: _____ Citizenship: _____ Check is enclosed _____

VISA/MasterCard No.: _____ Exp. Date: _____ Amount: _____

Signature: _____

Please mail, fax or e-mail check or credit card information to:

World Affairs Council of Washington, DC

1200 18th St. NW Suite 902

Washington, DC 20036

Phone: 202-293-1051 • Fax: 202-293-3467

E-mail: astamp@worldaffairsdc.org

www.worldaffairsdc.org

*All cancellations must be received by May 24, 2010 in order to be considered for a refund.